College of the San Francisco Art Institute

The College of the San Francisco Art Institute, formerly the California School of Fine Arts, was founded in 1874 and is the oldest art school in the western United States. Since 1926, the College has been located on its own Russian Hill campus, only a few minutes from downtown San Francisco. An affiliate of the University of California, the Art Institute's College is fully accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and by the National Association of Schools of Art to grant the Bachelor of Fine Arts and Master of Fine Arts degrees.

Evening & Saturday School

Programs of the Evening & Saturday School have been designed to meet the requirements of non-professionals and professionals, beginning and advanced students, and degree candidates. Instructors are selected from the vanguard of creative artists to assure students the opportunity to work with men and women who are masters in their fields. Each faculty member is given freedom to use his own methods of instruction and to express his own concepts to his students. This freedom, which allows the students to experience a variety of approaches to art, together with the professional competency of the teachers, encourages the student to develop his own creative abilities and attitudes and provides a unique learning situation for both the beginning and the advanced student.
